

REV. ARTHUR L. BUMPUS.

Rector of Trinity Church, Hewlett,
L. I., Dies in His 57th Year.

The Rev. Arthur Lewis Bumpus, rector of Trinity Church, Hewlett, L. I., died yesterday, in his fifty-seventh year.

Mr. Bumpus was born in Weymouth, Mass., and was graduated from Harvard in 1891 and the Episcopal Theological School three years later. His first charge was St. Paul's Church, Natick, Mass. In 1899 he became assistant at the Church of the Ascension, Boston. Three years later he became assistant at St. Paul's Church, Milwaukee.

Mr. Bumpus in 1909 took charge of Trinity Church, Belvidere, Ill. In 1910 he became vicar of St. Andrew's Church, Ayer, Mass., and three years later rector of St. Michael's Church, Brooklyn. He went to Hewlett in 1916.

Funeral services will be held at the church in Hewlett Sunday at 3 P. M. Interment will be in Quincy, Mass.