

NOTABLES AT FUNERAL OF BISHOP SLATTERY

Trinity Church, Boston, Filled— Governor, Mayor and Many Bishops Present.

Special to The New York Times.

BOSTON, March 15.—Before an assemblage of notables of Church and State who filled Trinity Church, funeral services for the Right Rev. Charles Lewis Slattery, D. D., Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Massachusetts, were held today.

Nine Bishops and 250 clergymen were present, together with Governor Frank G. Allen, Mayor James M. Curley and other prominent figures.

The Bishops, headed by Bishop William Lawrence, father-in-law of Dr. Slattery, were John T. Dallas of New Hampshire, J. DeWolf Perry of Rhode Island, Samuel A. Booth of Vermont, Benjamin Brewster of Maine, Edward C. Atcheson of Connecticut, Chauncey Brewster, retired, of Connecticut; James E. Freeman of Washington, D. C.; Ernest M. Stires of Long Island, N. Y., and Samuel G. Babcock, Suffragan Bishop of Massachusetts.

The church services, which were broadcast over WBZ, were preceded by private services at the family residence, 175 Beacon Street, at which the Very Rev. Philemon S. Sturges, dean of the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, officiated.

At Mount Auburn Cemetery services were conducted by Bishop Lawrence, who was assisted by his sons, the Rev. W. Appleton Lawrence, rector of Grace Church, Providence, and the Rev. Frederic C. Lawrence, rector of St. Peter's Church, Cambridge.
