

NEWBEGIN--KING.Boston Woman Married to Maine
Clergyman by Bishop Codman.

PORTSMOUTH, N H, Sept 12—The marriage of Rev Edward H. Newbegin, rector of St John's church at Bangor, Me, and Miss Elizabeth Woodbury King, daughter of D. Webster King of Boston, took place at high noon today at the summer home of the bride's parents at Gerrish Island, Kittery Point.

The ceremony was performed by Bishop Codman of the Episcopal diocese of Maine and was witnessed only by the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

Noyes—Stevens.

SKOWHEGAN, Me, Sept 12—At 11 o'clock this morning at the house of Mr and Mrs M. B. Heslton on Water st Mr Albert Henry Noyes of Peabody, Mass, was married to Miss Edith May Stevens. The ceremony was performed by Rev E. T. Adams, pastor of the Methodist church, in the presence of about 30 intimate friends.

Will Try to Beat Simons' Record.

GARDINER, Me, Sept 12—Next Sunday Alfred Denning and Arthur Sibley will make an attempt to break the 300-mile road record recently established by Edwin Simons of South Boston. They will go over the same course which Simons rode, and are due to arrive in this city somewhere about noon on their way to the capital at Augusta.

About the Boxers.

M. M. E—They did not meet.

Al Weing and Tim Hurley will meet at Erie, Penn, Sept 27

Bob Allen and Billy Chisholm will meet at Manchester Sept 28.

Johnson—The bout between Bobby Dobbs and Jack Bennett did not take place at Cincinnati Monday night.

Charley O'Rourke, the Cambridge lightweight, is willing to meet Patsy Sweeney, but as the latter will meet Paddy Fenton at Norwich Sept 21 O'Rourke will challenge the winner.

It is getting to be quite a fad among the pugilists to be mixed up in a scandal of some sort, so Kid Broad has taken a hand and has eloped with a six-foot brunette who is well known at New York.

Joc Robinson, who will meet Eddie Connolly at the Kirtland A. C., at Lynn Sept 21, is doing some hard work for the bout, and he thinks he will do better this time against Connolly than when they met at St John.

The more Mrs Corbett talks about the fake fighting at New York the more the sports are convinced that she knows little or nothing about what took place over there. She now says that the fight between McCoy and Sharkey was a fake, but the people that saw the blows that Sharkey landed on McCoy know that it was not a fake affair.